Numb. 1763

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday October 9. to Thursday October 12. 1682.

Florence, Sept. 26.

SEveral Souldiers and Officers of the Italian Regiment, which has been lately Disbanded in France, are arrived at Legborn, and other Places. The Duke of Savoy continues under his Indisposition; and the Duke of Cadaval is preparing to return to Lisbon with the Fleet. Three Slaves having made their escape from Argiers, in a small open Boat, having no Sail, and only two Oars, are arrived at Legborne, after having been 22 Days at Sea, and three Days without any Provisions.

Vienna, Octob. 4. Our Letters from the Camp of General Caprara, of the 27th past, give an account, That the Imperial Army was so considerably reinforced, that it was in a condition to march towards the Enemy, but that they wanted Wagons to carry Provisions, and other necessaries, the Country People who were coming in with them, having been forced to return home, because of the disorders committed by the Militia raised by the Palatine of Hungary, who live without any Order or Discipline; That for this reason General Caprara was obliged to continue in his Camp between Trenchin and Leopolstadt, on the Waag. Levies are making in all the Emperor's Hereditary Countreys, to recruit the old Bodies that are on Foot, and it's said Commissions will in few days be given out for the raising of several new Regiments. The late Governor of Caschaw is dead; his accusation was, That that place was lost by his neglect, from whence so many ill accidents have since resulted. Just now arrive Letters from General Caprara of the first Instant, which say, That Lieutenant-Colonel Heysler, being abroad with 1000 Imperial Horse and Dragoons, had surprized 1000 Foot and 200 Horse of the Rebels, had killed 300 of them upon the place, and had taken 45 Prisoners, and 10 Colours; That the Prisoners reported that Count Teckeley had resolved to abandon Atsol, Newsol, Chremaitz, and other places in the Mountains; and that the Turks and the Rebels were not separated, as had been reported, but that the Vizier of Buda had, by reason of his illness, left the Army under a good Convoy, which had occasioned that report.

Francfort, Octob. 6. On the 28th past the French Ambassadors here presented a Memorial to the Imperial Ambassadors, and to the Deputies of the Empire, in which they declare, in the name of the King their Master, That his Majesty is willing to stand to the Offers which he has made by his Ministers for determining amicably his just Rights and Pretentions, till the last day of November; but in case the said Offers are not accepted before that time, his Majesty will be at liberty to pursue his own satisfaction in such manner as he shall think fit: and the fourth Instant the French Ambassadors gave in another Memorial, by which they declare, That if the Offers made by the King their Master be not accepted before the last day of the next Month, they shall be obliged to leave this place, after having, for the space of a Year that they have been here, done all that lay in them for the establishing a good Intelligence between his Majesty and the Empire.

Strasburg, Octob. 9. The Marquis de Courtenvaux, Son to Monsieur de Louvoy, parted from hence the second Instant for Mentz, and the same day arrived here the Baron de Monclar, the French King's Lieutenant-General in Alsace, but made no stay here. The French work with all possible application on the new Fortifications of this City, and on the Canal of Moltzheym, and give out that they will have finished all these Works before Winter. Four Regiments of Horse, drawn out of Friburg and Brisac, marched yesterday for Saverne, from whence they are to continue their March towards the Saar and Lorrain; and all the Horse which, upon the breaking up of the Camp at Landaw, were Quartered in the Villages in Alsace, are to follow the 15th Instant. From Francfort we have advice, That the French Ambassadors have declared to those of the Emperor, That if the Offers his Majesty has made for the determining the differences between him and the Empire be not accepted before the last of the next Month, his Majesty will not, after that, be obliged to stand to the said Offers.

Cologne, Octob. 9. On Friday last it was known, that our Elector had resolved to admit of the Deputation, which the City of Liege will send hither; upon condition that the said Deputies come not only from the Magistrates, but from the People, that so the Commonalty may not disapprove of what they shall do. And the same day his Electoral Highness sent to the Sieur Fodoci, the Imperial Minister, to acquaint him with the Resolution he had taken, and to desire him to give notice of it to the Magistrates at Liege. The Syndic of this City, which our Magistrates sent to the Directors of the Circle of Westphalia, is come back, and has given the Magistrates an account, That the Directors of the said Circle, have promised to have 1000 Men ready for the Service of this City, and that they will cause them to March hither whenever our Magistrates shall desire it. We do not yet certainly hear when the Bishop of Strasburg will be here. From Municke we have advice, That the Elector of Bavaria had held a general review of his Troops, and that he had resolved to send 8000 Men to the assistance of the Emperor against the Turks. From Vienna they write, That General Caprara was Encamped with the Imperial Army, between Trenchin and Leopolstadt, on the Waag; but that he would have removed from thence and marched towards the Enemy, had he not waited Carriages, which the Country People had not brought in, being in as much fear of the Hungarian Troops, Commanded by the Palatine of Hungary, as they could be of the Enemy, because of the Disorders they commit.

Cologne,